THE WASATCH

3 Receive Advanced Degrees

The University of Utah was pleased to announce that three local men were among the more than 900 students who were candidates for advanced degrees at the University's 102 annual commencement, June 5th.

All University graduates and members of the faculty and administration participated in the June 5th ceremony in the Special Events Center. The commencement speaker was Nobel Prize-winning biologist George Wald of Harvard University.

Degrees were conferred following Dr. Wald's address, and Ph.D and Ed.D. recipients received their diplomas. All other diplomas were awarded later in the day at separate college convocations where the students were individually recognized.

The June graduating class numbered about 3,000. The University of Utah's 23,000 students come from every county in Utah, every state in the nation and more than 50 foreign countries.

George D. Pitts, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Pitts of Heber city received his Doctor of Medicine Degree.

Doctor Pitts is a graduate of Wasatch High School and entered the University of Utah in 1966. He has been a member of the Sigma Chi Fraternity and played Intercollegiate basketball 1960-62.

He plans an internship at the Baylor Medical Center Hospital in Dallas, Texas.

Dr. Pitts is married to the former Karen Kinnersley and they have two children.
